

This is in response to your letter dated April 11, 2007, concerning the Year End Report (11/28/06-12/31/06) of the House Majority Fund. The House Majority Fund is a small committee that has few administrative expenses. Currently, it has no paid staff or rented office space and relies primarily on a consulting firm (Winpisinger & Associates, Inc.) and volunteers to administer the Committee's activities. All of the expenses incurred to operate the Committee, including payments to its consultant, have been reported as federal operating expenditures on the Committee's FEC reports. We hope that this information adequately addresses your questions. If you need any further information, please let me know.
